No additions or corrections to agenda

Budget Balance $2,859.00

The survey results were presented by Tracie Newberry. The results showed that for the MS/HS and elementary the top two needs were social skills and behavior intervention.

Kim Meyer spoke to the committee and TASN is willing to pay for a speaker to present on autism. Kim suggested Paula Kluth who is an autism/ inclusion specialist. It was suggested to reach out to the district Superintendants to send teams of regular ed teachers along with the SEK Interlocal staff.

TASN has also offered to pay for Paula Kluth to arrive early one day to speak to parents.

Training resources shared by Kim Meyer are listed below.
